

Reading Leaders Quiz

It's been a while since your training, let's see what you can remember...

1-2-1
mentoring

How many reading activities in a half hour session?
What is the best error rate to aim for when helping your reading partner? (a) 10%                      (b) 1%                      (c) 5%
“Why do you think .....?” Is this an open or a closed question?
“How many characters in the story?” Is this an open or closed question?
Are the following statements true or false?
A word search is a reading activity.
A Reading Leader regularly shares the reading aloud.
Connect 4 is a reading activity.
Self – correcting is a positive reading strategy.
Books with pictures should not be used.
Good readers read quickly.
Good readers never make a guess.
Reading Leaders give praise for effort.
Reading Leaders need a sense of humour.
Using a map is not a reading activity.
The most effective praise to improve reading skills must be specific.
It's important to fill out a log sheet fully (a) once a term              (b) every session              (c) just the first session
Which is the odd one out? (a)missing word endings    (b)reading quickly    (c)lack of confidence (d)lack of expression        (e)reading for meaning    (f)reading slowly
Good luck! We really hope you enjoy your time as a Reading Leader.

