

Reading Leaders Quiz

It's been a while since your training, let's see what you can remember...

How many reading activities in a half hour session?	3
What is the best error rate to aim for when helping your reading partner? (a) 10%                      (b) 1%                      (c) 5%	(c) 5%
“Why do you think .....?” Is this an open or a closed question?	Open – asking for an opinion
“How many characters in the story?” Is this an open or closed question?	Closed – retrieving factual information
Are the following statements true or false?
A word search is a reading activity.	True
A Reading Leader regularly shares the reading aloud.	True
Connect 4 is a reading activity.	False
Self – correcting is a positive reading strategy.	True
Books with pictures should not be used.	False
Good readers read quickly.	False
Good readers never make a guess.	False
Reading Leaders give praise for effort.	True
Reading Leaders need a sense of humour.	True!
Using a map is not a reading activity.	False
The most effective praise to improve reading skills must be specific.	True
It's important to fill out a log sheet fully (a) once a term              (b) every session              (c) just the first session	(b)
Which is the odd one out? (a)missing word endings    (b)reading quickly    (c)lack of confidence (d)lack of expression        (e)reading for meaning    (f)reading slowly	(e) reading for meaning (comprehension) – all the others are reading difficulties

